DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-18, drawn to a pharmaceutical dosage form, classified in class 424, subclass 400. Please note Species Election Requirement outlined below.
- II. Claim 19-20, drawn to a method of making a pharmaceutical dosage form, classified in class 424, subclass 400. Please note Species Election Requirement outlined below.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions II and I are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the process of making the pharmaceutical dosage form of claim 1 requires limitations that are not required of the pharmaceutical dosage form. For example, the process recited in claim 19 requires coating an IR bead with a mixture of plasticized water-soluble polymer and an enteric polymer to form a TPR bead. However, the limitations of claim 1 only require TPR beads with "an active-containing core particle" and "a pulse coating surrounding said core". As such, the pharmaceutical dosage form of claim 1 does not require that the coating be comprised of a mixture of plasticized water-soluble polymer and an enteric polymer. Thus, the dosage form recited in instant claim 1 can be made by a materially different process, including the use of other coatings.

Art Unit: 1614

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Election of Species Requirement if Group I or II is Elected

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species: the multitude of compounds encompassed by the genus "histamine H₂ antagonists". The species are independent or distinct because the genus comprises compounds with distinct structures and would present an undue search burden to search the entire scope of the claims. For example, nizatidine and cimetidine are two histamine H₂ antagonists with distinct structures.

Clearly, to search the entire scope of the claimed invention would require an undue search burden because histamine H₂ antagonists have no common structural feature that can be readily be searched.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species (i.e. a single histamine H₂ antagonist) for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 1 is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Joint Inventors

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
